{2} WHEREAS, Respondent appeared and presented argument before the Court on August 21, 2026, regarding the misrepresentations he made to the Court;

{3} WHEREAS, Respondent acknowledged to the Court in his written response and oral argument that he used the generative artificial intelligence (AI) tool ChatGPT in the preparation of the brief in chief he filed with the Court;

{4} WHEREAS, Respondent admitted to the Court that the brief in chief contained false testimony from wholly fabricated witnesses—Officer Michelle Amarillo, Officer Sanchez, Manal Al-Jibury, and Teresa Marquez; false testimony from Danny Stanton that he received threats, which he took seriously, from Defendant-Appellant; false testimony from Linda Stanton about the threats her husband received; false testimony from Mariah Chavez and Teresa Marquez (fabricated witness) regarding the shooter's clothing and appearance; and misrepresented legal authority in *State v. {9} WHEREAS, this Court has inherent authority to regulate proceedings in New Mexico Courts and discipline New Mexico attorneys under the Court's power of "superintending control over all inferior courts," as set forth in Article VI, Section 3 of the New Mexico Constitution and when imposing discipline, the Court relies "upon the steps necessary to insure the future protection of the public, the reputation of the profession, and the orderly administration of justice." In re Neundorf, 1989-NMSC-052, ¶ 7, 108 N.M. 653, 777 P.2d 381; and

{15} IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Law Office of the Public Defender is hereby appointed to represent Defendant-Appellant in this appeal and shall assign counsel to this matter who shall enter an appearance on behalf of Defendant-Appellant forthwith;

{16} IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all briefing filed in this matter is hereby STRICKEN;

{17} IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, following the entry of appearance of new defense counsel, a new briefing order shall be issued and the case will proceed with the intention that it will be heard during the Court's 2026-2027 term;

{18} IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that as a sanction for direct contempt, Stephen D. Aarons shall, within thirty (30) days of the date of this order, pay a sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) to the State Bar of New Mexico Client Protection Fund and shall notify the Court in writing when such payment is made; and

{19} IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Court exercises its discretion under Rule 12-405(B) NMRA to dispose of this matter to the extent it resolves the issues raised pertaining to Respondent's misrepresentations by nonprecedential order rather than a formal opinion.
